

Happy Thanksgiving!

This is just a quick email to the Coalition to raise some critically needed support now;

Need Hotline Volunteers Badly

The enhanced FLYERSRIGHTS hotline (1(877)FLYERS6) went 24/7 yesterday and we're getting calls from all around the country. We really, really, really need more volunteers to help with the calls. Please contact Kate (kate@flyersrights.com) if you are willing to help out. We only need this help for a few days to get through the Thanksgiving holiday.

We also Need Airport Volunteers!

In particular, if you can help hand out brochures at DFW, please contact Dan Prall at salakfarm@verizon.net. Dan is leading the charge at the airport. Thanks Dan!
We still need more volunteers at all the other major airports.

Interested in Doing an Interview with the New York Post?

As you travel this holiday we hope you are carefully documenting your airline experience. For those of you flying in or out of NYC, we have a request from two reporters ... Kathianne Boniello of the New York Post and of the Star Ledger ... she wants to write a story about people's travel experience/nightmare between now and the weekend. She heard about our efforts to have travelers document what they go through this week as they travel for Thanksgiving, and wants to work with some travelers (ideally two or three) going out of JFK, LGA or Newark, and put those stories in this Sunday's paper. People would have to be willing to be photographed (ideally, at the airport, before they leave) and then talk to her again on Friday about what they went through. If interested, contact;

Here are a couple of additional media requests:

Univision - Looking for Spanish speaking passengers who has had a bad flying experience from NYC area for an interview. -1-646-335-8194

Abby Druen - Star Ledger (NJ) - Anyone at Newark or LaGuardia that might want to do an interview. - -973-392-5835
